KORAN THE ONLY LAW.

Civil Government is impossible in the Sulu Islands.

JOLO, Island of Sulu, March 20.—The commission was heartily received at the headquarters of the sultan. The residences of the people of the town were decorated with flags, the stars and stripes floating through the town, while thousands of fre crackers were exploded in all directions.

It was a beautiful summer morning, and when the sultan and not put it as an appearance upon the arrival of the last launch, a cutter was sent with the secretary of the commission to invite the sultan to visit the ship. They brought back his majesty, clothed in gold and purple, and decorated with jewelry. He presented a comic opera aspect as he came on board, followed by his ministers and a score of relatives in motley court array. They were greeted with a salute of 17 guns. Commissioner Taft explained to his majesty that there was no disposition on the part of the members of the commission to interfere with the administration of the sultan's affairs or the habits, customs and religion of the people. He said that the only motive governing the commission was the prospective prosperity and happiness of the people of the Sulu Islands, and that the people of the United States expected the treaty to be strictly observed.

The sultan then thanked Commissioner Taft and spoke proudly of the cable and other improvements introduced by the Americans, adding that his best friends were the military officials, and that he expected to abide by the decision of the commissioners and to follow their advice. His majesty then inspected the ship. That afternoon the sultan was received at the American military headquarters and inspected the troops. Native sports followed, which were witnessed by the commissioners and others.

The Philippine commission sailed this morning for Isabela, Island of Basilan. Before leaving the commission had a long consultation with Major Sweet, the American commander at Gato, and Dhul Karpain, the strongest chief of the Sulus, who usually opposes the sultan.

Any measure of civil government in the Sulu appears impossible at present. The customs of vassalage, in its virulent and polygamy prevail. There is no law except the Koran, and that is not always followed. The Morros and Chinese desire a cessation of military rule in Jolo, but the commission is not prepared to do this.

The uncertainty and the position without the walls render this inadvisable. Military officers consider the treaty unnecessary and an impediment to progress.

FRENCH INFLUENCE GROWING.

Activity in Southern Provinces of China.

HONG KONG, March 30.—It is reported from Canton that the activity of the French is greatly increasing in the neighborhood of this city. Two steamers ply between Hong Kong and Canton, and gunboats are much in evidence on the Chinese waterways. It is also reported that two steamers are being built in France to run between Hong Kong and Canton, and that the French intend to subsidize the carrying of the mails. It is also expected that a French postoffice will open in Canton about April 1.

Objections have been lodged to the plying of the steam launches under the tricolor. Chinese captains now fly the tricolor with an addition of three small flags, which are also visible a shore distance away, and as a result, it is said, the Chinese people imagine they are still under the tricolor, and conclude that the French influence is gaining. It is also reported that a French hospital was opened at Canton, which is also back for the purpose of receiving Chinese patients. All this adds French influence and prestige.

WHY HE DID NOT SIGN.

Accident to Chinese Minister Saved Manchuria.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30.—Last Monday, when the world expected that the Russo-Chinese convention as to Manchuria would be signed, the Russian foreign office received word that the Chinese minister in St. Petersburg, Yang Yu, had fallen and been seriously injured. This news was received at the time with a grain of salt, but a representative of the Associated Press was informed at the United States embassy this evening that Yang Yu had not only slipped on a stair, but had hurt his elbow and leg, but hurt his head and was consequently confined to his bedroom. Yang Yu is over 60, and fleshy. He has recently displayed great anxiety in reference to the convention, and has hesitated to sign, particularly since he is in doubt about his reception should he return to China, as he belongs to the liberal party.

Spanish War Claims.

Washington, March 29.—The Spanish war claims commission, of which ex-Senator Chandler is president, has received from the state department a full list of the claims against Spain growing out of the insurrection in Cuba, which were filed in the department up to the 15th of the present month. These claims are all those of American citizens, for under the treaty of Paris, the governments of the United States and Spain undertook to adjust claims of their own citizens. The grand total of these claims is about $30,000,000, and included in the list are five claims in excess of $1,000,000. The largest single claim is that of John W. Brock, on account of property losses, estimated at $2,162,514. Mrs. Ruiz, widow of the dentist who was killed in a Havana prison, is a claimant for $75,000.

Pioneer Stage Operator Drowned.

Oakland, Cal., March 30.—The body of John Allman, a pioneer stage coach operator of the coast, has been found in the harbor, and it is believed he was accidentally drowned. During his lifetime he made a business of bidding on almost every mail-carrying contract in the west, and at one time had more government contracts than any other man engaged in the business. He was a personal friend of President U. S. Grant, and during that official's administration spent much of his time in Washington.

$1,000,000 HOTEL FIRE.

The Jefferson, at Richmond, Va., Burned, But No Lives Lost.

RICHMOND, Va., April 1.—The Jefferson hotel, this city, which was erected and furnished by the late Louis Ginter at a cost of $1,000,000, was destroyed by a fire. The magnificent structure covered half a block in the ultra-fashionable part of the city, and was built of buff brick on a granite foundation.

The flames were discovered in the upper part of the Main-street side shortly before midnight, and in a short time that part of the building was a roaring furnace. The guests who were first driven out of the Main-street portion of the hotel took refuge in the lobby on the Franklin-street side.

There was much excitement, especially among the women, many of whom had retired for the night. Many persons lost all their effects.

No one perished in the flames. The fire started in the linen room from a defective gas. The insurance is about $650,000. All the surrounding houses are filled with property taken from the hotel. There has been some looting, and several arrests have been made. There were in the hotel many works of art, including Valentine's marble statue of Jefferson, which stood in the Franklin-street court. This statue was broken.

Immediately upon the discovery of the fire, which was eating into the ceiling of the linen room, the hotel fire apparatus was brought into play, but the loss was too great. The flames then dashed through the building, awakening the guests, many of whom were sleeping and had to be dragged out of bed. Most of the guests on the Franklin-street end of the hotel saved their baggage, and finally the Jefferson was gotten out, with the heat broken off. The guests in the part where the fire started lost their baggage, and many of them lost all their clothes. Owing to the height of the building, the fire department was at a great disadvantage. The fire made an immense blaze, and practically awakened the entire city. There were no thrilling escapes, the halls and staircases being numerous and wide.

EFFECT OF CAPTURE.

Insurgent Leaders on Luzon Are Expected to Surrender.

MANILA, April 1.—Aguinaldo is now detained in a comfortable room in a wing of the Malacanang palace. He is in charge of Captain Benjamin H. Randolph and Lieutenant Gilbert A. Youngberg, of battery G, Third artillery.

When Aguinaldo was captured he wore a plain dark blue suit with the coat closely buttoned up at the throat and a wide white helmet with a leather band. He takes his capture philosophically. He is generally cheerful, but sometimes moody. His health during the past year has been very good. It is uncertain what attitude he will now assume. Certain visitors are permitted to see Aguinaldo, but newspaper interviews with the prisoner are not allowed.

Since Aguinaldo has been domiciled at the Malacanang palace, persons not provided with special permits have been denied admission to the grounds.

General Trias, the commander of the insurgent forces in Southern Luzon, who recently surrendered to the American authorities, visited Aguinaldo, and told the latter why he had surrendered. Trias said that a continuation of the fight would result in the utter ruin of the Philippines, and that the independence of the Philippines was impossible, and that the Philippines had better accept liberty, prosperity and progress under American rule.

The capture of Aguinaldo, following the surrender of General Trias, will probably occasion the surrender of the insurgent leader Malvar in Batangas province, Luzon; Bellarmino, in Albay province, Luzon, and Lucena, in the island of Samar within a few days. Many people believe the residence of General and Mrs. Funston on the Calle Real, in the suburb of Ermita. The general modestly declined to talk. Mrs. Funston was evidently the happiest woman in the Philippine Islands.

General Funston has been recommended for a place on the civil service commission, but as this is a reduction both in salary and importance, he does not like to make the change. The president does not want to dump Hermann out in the cold, and the civil service commissioner ship was suggested to let him down easy.

George D. Melklejohn, ex-assistant secretary of war, is mentioned as Hermann's successor. He lost his former place in making a fight for the senate, but it is understood he contributed his full share in the choice of two Republicans, and may be recognized for his party loyalty.

A Dubuque Fire.

Dubuque, Ia., April 1.—A four-story brick structure occupied by George Richardson & Co., manufacturers of shoes, and B. F. Richardson & Co., ladies' shoes, was destroyed by fire to night. Loss, $118,000.

Says He Is Heir.

Tacoma, Wash., April 1.—Samuel Philby, a Tacoma ship carpenter here, claims to be one of the heirs to the English estate of Thomas Holden, mentioned in yesterday's dispatches.

Philby's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Shelton Philby, 78 years old, now living at Brazil, Ia., was the granddaughter of Thomas Holden, through her mother. The claim of the Philby heirs combats that of the Broadbents, of Baltimore; Stambaughs, of New York, and others, who claim inheritance through Holden's sister Elizabeth, while the Philby heirs claim direct descent.

Massacred by Tiburon Indians.

Phoenix, Ariz., April 1.—It is reported that a party of goldseekers was massacred by Ceris Indians on the island of Tiburon, in the Gulf of California. Two weeks ago six Mexican prospectors left Tepopa on the west coast of Mexico in a small boat and went to Tiburon island in search of gold. Pedro Pasquella, one of the party, has reached the mainland in a small boat, and reported a fierce fight with the Indians. He escaped, and believes his comrades were killed.

Capture of Aguinaldo Leads to Many Surrenders.

GENERAL MACARTHUR MAKES A REPORT

The Insurrection in the Island of Mindanao Stamped Out—Filipinos Learn That Resistance Is Useless.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—An important dispatch received at the war department today from General MacArthur, in the opinion of the officials, went far to support the prediction made by General MacArthur yesterday that the end of the rebellion is near at hand. This dispatch chronicles the surrender of a considerable additional number of rebels and military arms, and the important feature of it is that the surrender marks the complete stamping out of the insurrection in the island of Mindanao, which is, next to Luzon, the largest island in the group. The dispatch is as follows:

"Manila, March 29.—Brigadier General William Cobb reports the surrender at Sumilao, Mindanao, of 5 officers, 160 men, 187 rifles and 80 shotguns, Capistrano's command. This ends the trouble in Mindanao as far as the Philippines are concerned. Brigadier General Robert F. Hughes reports Alkappa and Ruiz, 34 guns, surrendered to Captain David Shanks, Eighteenth infantry, at Mamburao; 206 guns, Fution's command, surrendered to Lieutenant Colonel William S. Scott, Forty-fourth infantry."

The following cablegram was received at the navy department from Admiral Remy:

"Cavite, March 29.—Bureau of Navigation, Washington: MacArthur telegraphs: 'Thanks to splendid cooperation of Vicksburg, I have Aguinaldo securely in my possession at Malacanang. General Funston lead in praise of everything navy did. Entire army joins in thanks to yourself, officers and men.' REMEY."

Secretary Long replied to the admiral as follows:

"Remy, Manila: Inform MacArthur highly appreciate his and Funston's generous praise navy, and
